

The Forge, Moycullen (upstairs)

Agenda

10.30am Registration

- Come a little early and enjoy some chat over tea/coffee and scones

11.00am Meeting

- Welcome to Moycullen, Minister Sean Kyne TD, Government Chief Whip
- Overview of the day, Moycullen Heritage Group
- A very warm welcome to our new groups from Co Clare
 - Brief introduction from each group (existing and new)
- Network updates
 - Our Irish Women exhibition
 - Updates from Milltown, Louisburgh-Killeen and Killereerin.
 - Network Administrator
 - County Wicklow PPN Plenary meeting, 20th June 2019.
 - CAHG Conference – migration stories/information
 - Heritage Ireland 2030 consultation
 - NMI's National Celebration of Folk 2020
 - Holy Wells 2020, Marie Mannion

12.30pm Training Presentation

- The Holy Wells of Ireland - Professor Celeste Ray, Sewanee University, Tennessee, USA

We are delighted to welcome Celeste to our meeting. Celeste will talk about her fascinating research into the holy wells of Ireland, why holy wells are important heritage sites and how to locate, research and document your local holy wells.

13.30pm Lunch2.15pm Moycullen Heritage Tour (optional)

This part of the day is optional, but members are encouraged to stay and discover just some of the unique history and heritage of Moycullen, and its environs.

Part 1: Celtic Crystal Moycullen (<http://www.celticcrystalireland.com/>), tour of the factory, including a demonstration of glass-cutting by hand. Discover the historical significance of the glass factory to the history of Moycullen, and a Co Clare connection!

Part 2: Teampeall Einne

Our friends in Moycullen have kindly organised access to this oratory ruin, which also displays a leacht, lisín, bullaun stone and holy well. We will also see a monument to John Geoghegan who was killed by the Black and Tans. Please bring appropriate outdoor clothing and footwear.

Estimated finish time: 4pm