VISITOR'S VOICE RESPONSE CARDS

This project looks fantastic. Wonderful stories about impressive women. Well done to all involved.

An excellent exhibition.

Great – lovely range of women’s lives in the different venues

Great to see the diversity of the exhibition – young, old, famous and not so famous – really excellent!

Great to see how much women have achieved – made me proud!

Let’s have more!

Wonderful work! Very interesting. Credit to the group.

Inspiring exhibition

Having no knowledge of the lives of Irish women I feel enlightened by this experience.

It is wonderful to see these Irish women being exhibited they are a credit to Ireland.

I found this exhibition very educational and I only wish there were more stands to look at!

I would love to see Violet’s TV show that was based on her novels.

The locals are so informative – so nice to hear first-hand accounts of Dr Hilary

I found this exhibition very inspiring as a young girl to see other inspiring women.

VISITOR COMMENTS

The image shows a feedback form titled "VISITOR'S VOICE" with the logo of "OUR IRISH WOMEN" (AN NA HEIRIANNA) on the left. The form asks for three words to describe the response to the exhibition and provides three input boxes. It also asks for thoughts on the exhibition or women's stories to share, with a large text area for the response.
