

FRIDAY.

The nominations for the Parliamentary Constituency of Kerry and West Limerick took place to-day in the County Courthouse, Tralee.

Mr Redmond Roche, Sub-Sheriff, was the official in charge.

The following were nominated in the Sinn Fein interest :—

Austin Stack, T.D.,

Fionan Lynch, T.D.,

Jas. Crowley, T.D.,

Piaras Beasloai, T.D.,

Cors. Collins, T.D.,

New candidates—Edmond Roche, Knockfenora, Bruree (in prison).

Thomas O'Donoghue, Listowel (Vice-chairman Kerry Co. Council.

Patrick J Cahill, Caherina, Tralee.

There being no other persons nominated, the above were declared elected.

Messrs Austin Stack, E Roche, Thomas O'Donoghue and P Beasley were proposed and seconded by the Hon Albinia Brodrick and Mr John Moynihan respectively.

Messrs P J Cahill and Finian Lynch by the Hon Albinia Brodrick and Mrs Mary Slattery, and

Messrs J Crowley and Cornelius Collins by Mr Alex O'Shea and the Hon Albinia Brodrick.

Several sets of nomination papers were in readiness if necessary.

As is well known, the new members in this and the other Southern constituencies will not sit, so that the proposed "Parliament" will be strangled at birth.

There was not a particle of public interest taken in the elections in Tralee.
